

At this distance, it appears the Philippines are learning and applying the lesson of democracy in a thoroughly satisfactory manner. They had a nationwide election over there Tuesday, the issue being a familiar one—whether the administration in power would be continued despite charges of graft and corruption, or be ousted in favor of a war hero leading the opposition. The war hero won.

Ramon Magsaysay, 46-year-old general who wiped out the Huk Communist rebels in the provinces, will be the Philippines' new president, winning a landslide victory over the veteran politician and president, Elpidio Quirino.

The vulnerable side of all democratic elections is the ease with which public opinion can be manipulated by one method or another to hold out for a remedy. An alert and intelligent people will be the exception, not the rule, in such a situation.

It is a situation which our own American people haven't always met successfully, nor the other great white democracies, Britain and France.

Therefore it is top news when the Philippines, voting in only their second national election as a free and independent people, have so successfully overturned an accused administration. Most Americans, like your writer, don't know the details of that Philippine campaign—just as we like the way it came out, just as a matter of principle.

Here's a top editorial from another newspaper:

HISTORY'S OTHER SIDE
(The Daily Oklahoman)

For a full half century young Americans were taught by their textbooks that Custer's defeat on the Little Big Horn was nothing but a massacre and that Sitting Bull, who led the Sioux in that historic engagement, was nothing but a barbarous savage. The popular picture of "Custer's Last Stand" was a picture of a hero at bay fighting to the last against a horde of painted barbarians. To those who are still indoctrinated with that one-sided tradition it will come as a surprise that a handsome memorial to Sitting Bull should be unveiled in South Dakota. Now the unveiling of a Custer memorial would be understood. It would be accepted as the proper thing. But Sitting Bull? Now that is something different.

In our popular and most read histories the part played by Indians has been played down or deliberately distorted. When the white man won, the result was described as a glorious victory, but when the red man won, the result was branded as a brutal massacre and in this one-sided treatment of historical events, military strategists of a very high order have been completely ignored. Not yet does the average American realize that some of the best known of Indian warriors possessed unusual military talent. Sitting Bull was more than a Sioux chieftain. He was a successful general also. He met and defeated and destroyed the Little Army of one of the most renowned cavalrymen of the Civil War. It took a real military mind to out-think George Custer and it required rare military skill to defeat him. The result of the Little Big Horn battle is convincing proof that Sitting Bull was no military novice.

No published list of redoubtable American soldiers contains the names of Pontiac or Tecumseh or Chief Joseph. Yet those men certainly were more skillful leaders than some of those whose names rank high in the list of Americans fighting men. Why not give those Indians their due? And why overlook Quannah Parker, whom the late Col. B. A. Snodgrass declared to be one of the most talented strategists that ever came out of the Southwest. True enough most of these Indian leaders were ruthless in their military methods but that is no convincing reason why they should be regarded as obnoxious. Their names have been known to lapse into obscurity when the issues of life and death had been drawn. Remember, it was no American Indian that dropped a bomb on all those women and children in Hiroshima. — George E. Sokolsky.

They Picture It About Right

LONDON, (UP) — The London Daily Express today published a front page cartoon showing two American senators standing beneath a bust of George Washington. The caption read:

"Personally, senator, I'd like to re-open the whole cherry-tree inquiry. I figure he was shielding someone."

Leaves For Congo

STUTTGART, (UP) — An Arkansas expert on irrigation left here today to conduct research for a drainage project at Leopoldville in the Belgian Congo.

Engineer from Frickhoff Stuttgart will join Ray Kazmian, also of Stuttgart, in Leopoldville. Kazmian has been there for several weeks working on research for a new independent water supply for the city.

Benson Blames Overproduction for Farm Prices

COLUMBUS, O. (UP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson today blamed overproduction for the drop in farm prices, and urged voluntary controls and the finding of new markets to check the decline.

Benson said the country was now facing a "very clear picture" that the past farm policies would not work, without unusual demands for more production as were brought on by war and foreign aid programs.

Part programs worked "quite well" but had run into trouble as the demand for American farm products declined, the agriculture secretary said. He said the sharp drop in exports were a "major factor" in this year's price declines.

Benson said there was "room for belief" that the Truman administration "misled farmers as to demand required of the cold war. He also said the Truman administration failed to impose controls required by existing legislation.

"The only reasonable thing to do is to adjust to the situation that actually confronts us," Benson said in a speech prepared for delivery before the closing session of the convention of Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities.

Benson shared the speaker's rostrum with foreign operations director Harold E. Stassen.

"The plain truth is that our farm production this year is larger than our markets—domestic and export—will take at prices that are fair to the producer," Benson said.

Benson said that with farmers' production costs continuing at "extremely high levels, it is clear that some cutbacks in production and some shifts between types of production are necessary."

The "immediate task," Benson said is to expand markets at home and abroad and to bring production in line with prospective demand.

Quirino at Last Admits Defeat

By DON HUTH

MANILA, (UP) — Tired, ailing President Elpidio Quirino today conceded victory in the Philippines presidential election to youthful, vigorous Ramon Magsaysay, who won in a landslide.

The 46-year-old winner, a staunch friend of the United States, becomes the third President of this 7-year-old republic. He is to take office Jan. 1 for a four-year term. Quirino steps out after six years in office.

With about 60 per cent of Tuesday's vote tabulated, the unofficial count was Magsaysay, 1,815,188; Quirino, 978,922.

The concession statement by the 62-year-old Quirino, still recovering from two major stomach operations in the United States, was read to newsmen by his press secretary.

"In this year's election," it said, "evidently the people expressed much in a change of administration. My most fervent prayer at this hour is that the change is for the better."

"The people's verdict should be accepted for the sake of national unity. I have nothing but good wishes for the country and my successor."

Magsaysay was cruising in Manila Bay on the palatial yacht of Adm. Richard H. Cruzen, commander of U. S. naval forces in the Philippines, when word reached him that Quirino had conceded.

Doesn't Hate Exercise, Only the People Who Do Exercise Then Go Around Bragging

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (UP) — Well, I was just sitting there with my feet on the desk, contentedly watching a spider spin a cobweb between my two shoes, when the phone rang.

"Are you one of those lazy men who hate exercise?" demanded a voice.

"No," I said honestly, "I'm just one of those lazy men who hate people who exercise — and brag about it."

"How would you like to exercise while you loaf?" asked the voice.

"How would you like to build a tiger-trim figure without even moving a muscle yourself?"

"Can I do this lying down?" I asked cautiously.

"Sure," said the voice. "You can even read, eat, watch a TV program, or fall asleep — and all the time you are getting to look more like Hercules. We do it with a machine. Come over and see."

So I climbed out of my lethargy and into a taxi and trundled over to a Fifth Avenue salon that on the door: "Relax-A-Cisor."

A brunette named Louise Simonet let me into a small room where a pretty blonde, Charlotte Rakay, lay stretched on a table. Miss Rakay wore a bathing suit and a series of damp felt pads that looked like an old-fashioned truss. Wires led from the pads to a small radio-like machine with knobs at her side.

"This machine takes the place of the water of the Dead Sea is more than a trillion dollars."

Feild Tells DAR of Treaty Dangers

At its regular meeting Wednesday, November 11, at Hot-J Barlow, the John Cain Chapter of the DAR heard the "Dangers of Treaty Laws" discussed by Representative Talbot Feild Jr.

Citing examples where high government officials who had a part in making treaties were later connected with subversive elements, Rep. Feild pointed to the need of organization like the DAR, taking a greater interest in nation affairs.

Write to your senators and other high officials, study material received, discuss it with each other, then let those officials know exactly your views, he appealed.

Communist spies are everywhere. Thousands of activities are being engaged in by hundreds of committees of the United Nations and one scheme is underway that threatens the existence of our way of government Mr. Feild said.

It is a proposal to persuade the American people to let the United Nations supervise and control of domestic affairs. This is aimed at the U. S. because in practically every nation of the world a treaty does not become domestic law until made so by action of the national legislature. A different rule prevails in the U. S. by reason of our unique supremacy clause.

Article VI of the Constitution provides that all treaties made under the authority of the U. S. "shall be that supreme law of the land and the judges in every State shall be bound thereby, and thing in the Constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding."

"So, you see we are at an unfair advantage in dealing with other nations, therefore, do you wonder whether the Communists would be interested in seeing our Constitution remain as it without amendment as proposed by Sen. Bricker and those joining him."

He warned, if no change is made a treaty with UN, for example and duties of American citizens may immediately alter the rights without legislative action whatsoever.

The Bricker amendment to the Constitution would limit the power to make treaties and executive agreements, and the move is meeting strong opposition.

In closing Mr. Feild said: "Your DAR is in the forefront of this great fight to pass the Bricker Amendment. Having personal knowledge of your organization's power and effectiveness, it is reassuring to know of its present stand on the Bricker amendment. But be reminded that no organization can be stronger than its individual members. You, as individuals, must face your responsibilities as citizens of the finest country in the world."

Mrs. Dick Watkins, regent, presided over the meeting. National defense was discussed by Mrs. Gus Hayne and various committee reports were made. There were 17 members present and three guests, Mrs. E. Cox and Mrs. Thomas Seymour of Fulton and Miss Barbara Cook of Lewisville.

Stevenson Sees Fall Victory for Democrats

ST. PAUL, Minn. (UP) — Adlai E. Stevenson told the National Young Democrats convention today the Democrats will win the congressional election next fall because "the people of this country are rapidly getting their fill of slick talk and foolish promises" from the Republicans.

Stevenson, unable to appear in person, made a tape-recorded speech which kicked off the party of more than 1,000 youthful Democrats from throughout the nation.

The brief speech made no mention of the Harry Dexter White furor. It was apparently recorded before the White case was made public last Friday by Attorney General Herbert Brownell.

Instead, Stevenson attacked Republican campaign promises to balance the budget and "help the farmer."

"If the Republican candidates had not spoken so glibly and often we would all have a great deal more sympathy for them now as they struggle with the heavy cost of defense—costs which were obvious last fall but conveniently overlooked," Stevenson said.

The 1952 Democratic presidential candidate said the GOP promised the farmers "all good things and 100 per cent of parity, too." Now, "they are having difficulty working in the face of surpluses, falling export markets, rapid technical change and other conditions that were clearly evident a year ago."

Stevenson's remarks got the three-day convention off to an optimistic start but a bitter delegation seating fight shaped up between two Texas groups, one supporting Gov. Allan Shivers, who backed President Eisenhower in the last election.

The election of the group's top officers promised to be interesting, with six candidates in the field already.

Candidates include: vice president, Maggie Petty, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Camille Klein, Dodge City, Kan.; treasurer, Ward McCreedy, Detroit and Richard Salterfield, Memphis, Tenn.

Delegates last night called the White case a "smear."

Miss Toby Obos of Pasadena, Calif., president of the California Young Democrats, said last night "The Harry Dexter White smear undoubtedly had much effect in turning the vote" in Tuesday's special election in California.

A Republican captured the vacant 24th District seat in the by-election.

Chicago's Richard Nelson, president of the national organization, said he does not think the California election reverses a "trend" of recent off-year successes by the Democrats.

Indians May Do Screening on Their Own

By JOHN RANDOLPH

PANMUNJON, (UP) — The Indian community today worked on detailed plans for screening Chinese and Korean war prisoners if the Communists abandon efforts to woo them home.

Red interviews with prisoners refusing repatriation were cancelled for the eighth straight day when the Communists repeated their demand to see 356 POWs who were shipped by stalling persuaders last Thursday.

Official quarters said the Red move appeared to be merely a maneuver while the Communist high command decides whether to go along with new Indian rules for running the interviews of indoctrinated prisoners.

Lt. Gen. K. S. Shimayya, Indian chairman of the Neutral Nations Repatriation Commission, was ready for a trip to Communist headquarters at Kresong whenever the Reds' answer is ready.

There was no word from the Communists.

Shimayya has told the Reds to interview entire compounds of 500 men each in a day or skip those not interviewed.

Chinese in compound C22, called out last Thursday to wait while Communist explainers interviewed only 136, have refused to come out again.

Elsewhere, diplomatic staff advisers held their sixth secret session in an effort to draw up an agenda for talks to arrange a Korean peace conference.

Kenneth Young, chief United Nations staff negotiator, said the 55-minute meeting was "very businesslike." He would say nothing more, except that another session was set for tomorrow.

The estimated value of minerals in the water of the Dead Sea is more than a trillion dollars.

Tree Farm System to Be Inaugurated in Hempstead

The Arkansas Tree Farm System will be inaugurated in Hempstead county, with the presentation of certificates and signs to ten landowners in a brief ceremony at the Monroe Samuels farm near DeAnn, on Monday, November 16.

The signs and certificates, given in recognition of good forestry work, will be awarded to B. J. Ellis, Vincent Foster, W. H. Gunter, Mrs. J. P. Owen, Monroe Samuels, Barto Bearden, C. C. Lewis, Ray McDowell, Mrs. J. R. Henry and Mrs. Mildred Douglas.

The Tree Farm awards will be made at a Forestry Field Day, following demonstrations of fire control, selective cutting, and tree planting. The Tree Farm System is sponsored by the Arkansas Forest Industries to promote better forestry practices by recognizing owners who are managing their woodlands to assure continuous production of commercial forest products.

Television Fight Up Before FCC

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Communications Commission has been asked to deny a request by Arkansas Television Co. that issues in a hearing in which the company and Arkansas Telecasters, Inc., are competing for a television station at Little Rock, Ark., be enlarged.

Arkansas Television is connected with radio station KTLH of Little Rock, Arkansas. Telecasters, Inc., is connected with radio station KXLI of North Little Rock.

Arkansas Television asks that the hearing, in addition to other issues, determine if:

1. Arkansas Telecasters will have available the money it specifies and that,
2. The money needed Arkansas Telecasters will give "reasonable assurance that the proposal set forth in its application will be effectuated."

Arkansas Television also asks the commission to direct the two applicants to exchange information on estimated budgets.

Arkansas Telecasters contend the commission already has passed on its financial qualifications. It added in a brief:

"What Arkansas Television Co. now asks is for the commission to go back and reconsider all of the material it has once passed upon, and now find that there is insufficient evidence of availability of the funds promised."

It said such action would be improper and could work a severe hardship upon Arkansas Telecasters.

Regarding the second point, Arkansas Telecasters said "all material" was before the commission when it made its initial determination that Arkansas Telecasters was qualified financially and that its proposal "gave reasonable assurance that it would be carried into execution."

Arkansas Shows More Employment

ATLANTA, Ga. (UP) — Arkansas showed an increase in factory employment in September, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported today.

Brunswick A. Bagdon, regional director of the bureau, reported the factory employment in the four states, Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas, was 705,000 during September, or 10,000 above the September, 1952, mark, and 400 below the August, 1953, figure.

Bagdon said among the four states, Arkansas was the only one reporting an increase in employment from August. This resulted, he said, from a sharp seasonal rise in cotton oil mill processing and termination of a labor dispute.

Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas each experienced small losses. The overall regional loss was one-tenth of one per cent, Bagdon said.

For the region, September hourly earnings ranged from $1.21 in Arkansas to $1.72 in Oklahoma. The national average was 1.70.

Overcome by Smoke Ozark Woman Dies

OSARK, (UP) — An Ozark grandmother died yesterday after she was overcome by smoke in a house fire.

She was Mrs. Mattie McIlroy, 81. Mrs. McIlroy was alone in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jack Crumpler, when the fire started, apparently from an overheated stove.

Mrs. McIlroy collapsed in the doorway as she attempted to escape. Later she was removed from the house by a grandson, O. P. Hilliard, and died before she could be taken to a hospital.

Only a shell of the two-story farm home was left by the fire.

Believe Tornadoes Can Be Averted

AUSTIN, Tex. (UP) — A golden missile may someday be fired into the roaring heart of a tornado and save a city like Waco, Tex., from such damage and death left there last spring.

Two scientists believe it completely practical and possible of achievement in the near future.

Dr. Fritz O. Rossman, a German physicist and meteorologist brought to this country by the Air Force six months ago, has proposed a new theory that contradicts a 50-year-old idea about tornado behavior.

Col. Rollins H. Mayer, electronic scientist at the Air Force missile test center, Patrick Air Force Base, Fla., where Rossman is working, says the theory makes possible a national tornado damage prevention net capable of saving millions of dollars and thousands of lives.

'Postponed' Hearing May Be Definitely Off

By Rex XCHANEY

WASHINGTON (UP) — Former President Truman today refused to comply with a House un-American Activities Committee subpoena in the Harry Dexter White case with the declaration that the committee had no power to issue it.

Mr. Truman notified the committee of his defiance shortly after Chairman Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.) had postponed indefinitely tomorrow's scheduled quizzing of the former chief executive.

Velde described Mr. Truman's action as "very unfortunate." He said he would take it up with the full committee but would not say when.

The committee subpoenaed Mr. Truman to answer charges by Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr., that he promoted White, then assistant Secretary of treasury, was a Soviet spy.

In refusing to answer the subpoena, Mr. Truman told Velde he did so "in spite of a personal willingness to cooperate with your committee."

But he said it was his "duty to the people of the United States" to follow "a long line of precedents commencing with George Washington himself in 1793."

The president he cited deals with actions by Presidents in office, not ex-presidents. But Mr. Truman said he was "duty bound" to follow "a long line of precedents commencing with George Washington himself in 1793."

Student Killed in Midst of Iran Trial

By JOSEPH MAZANDI

TEHRAN, Iran (UP) — One student was reported killed and another wounded today as troops and police used gunfire to put down Communist-inspired attempts to carry the treason trial of ousted Premier Mohammed Mossadegh to mobs in Tehran's streets.

Reports reached the capital that angry Iranians had cut off the entry of Red, pro-Mossadegh agitators who staged another demonstration in Tabriz.

The gunfire in Tehran came soon after the five-man military court hearing Mossadegh's trial, opened the fifth day of its uproarious hearing.

Police said pro-Communist (undue party) students of Tehran University swarmed into the streets demanding Mossadegh's release in response to pamphlets distributed last night demanding that the aged former premier be freed. Students later issued a statement disclaiming responsibility for the distribution of the inflammatory pamphlets.

Troops with Bren guns and tanks were ordered into Tehran's streets last night as a precaution against disorders.

Police said the shots were fired when Tudeh (Communist) party students of Tehran University attempted to organize a street parade.

The student who was reported killed was said to have been shot in the stomach. The wounded student was struck in the leg by a rifle bullet.

The government took vigorous measures to prevent rioting mobs from attempting to carry the trial of the aged premier to the streets.

Until today the city had been tense but quiet as Mossadegh threw the five-man military court into repeated disorder with his tears, fainting spells, shouted arguments that the court is incompetent to hear him and angry denunciations of his won court-appointed defense attorney.

Texas Wants to Marry Christine

WASHINGTON, (UP) — Patrick Flanagan, 28-year-old Washington artist, has confirmed reports that he has asked Christine Jorgensen to marry him.

Miss Jorgensen now appearing at a hotel in Las Vegas, Nev., is the famous "I" who claims she was transformed into a woman through surgery.

Flanagan, who said he sent Miss Jorgensen a three-quarter carat diamond engagement ring, coaxed that there is one big hitch to any wedding plans. He is married — although separated from his wife, Flanagan, employed by a Washington supply store, told reporters. "I just two people trying to find peace and happiness." He begged the public not to be "too cruel to us."

The wrong artist said he and Miss Jorgensen cannot be considered engaged because he already is married. He declined to discuss the possibility of a divorce from his wife.

He said he met Miss Jorgensen when she was playing at a night club here in September. "She is beautiful, real lady," he said. He painted two portraits of her and took her to Las Vegas, along with his wife.

Truman said they were applicable because he assumed from reading newspapers that the committee wanted to question him with respect to matters which occurred during my tenure.

He declared that "in maintaining his rights against a trespassing Congress," the President represented and himself and the people.

Whatever the legal merit of Mr. Truman's argument — no over-ex-President ever found himself in a similar position — it appeared certain that the postponed hearing is now definitely off.

Technically the subpoena is still in force, it merely has been "continued." But in view of considerable Republican opposition to the committee's original action, it seemed unlikely that any effort will be made either to compel the former President's presence or to punish him for today's action.

A reporter asked Velde if there is any possibility the committee might try to cite Mr. Truman for contempt for refusing to comply with the subpoena.

"I presume that question will be discussed when the full committee meets," Velde said. He declined to elaborate.

Nowhere in Mr. Truman's letter to Velde was there any similar promise of cooperation in connection with congressional investigation.

New Planes Climbs Seven Miles High

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The Air Force has disclosed that the world's first light airplane to have a jet power to its propeller has climbed more than seven miles to a new altitude record for small planes.

The announcement said Bill Army's Birdlog observation plane, The LX19B's Boring engine is a jet pilot for Cessna. His mark of 37,663 feet last July basically a jet but harnesses the normal exhaust thrust through a secondary turbine, to drive a conventional propeller.

Walter told newsmen he doubts if hearings ever will be held. "I believe that whatever matter involving this thing recognizes that happened far more serious than happened than was expected," he said. "I think the chairman will welcome the opportunity to forget about it."

Rep. James H. Frazier, Jr., (D-Tenn.), another committee member, said he thinks Mr. Truman "is entirely right."

"I do not believe the former president is in contempt of Congress. I can't conceive of Velde undertaking any action to cite him for contempt."

Walter agreed with Frazier. Rep. Morgan M. Moulder, (D-Mo.), also a committee member, said: "My God, it was outrageous to subpoena him."

But now to dilly dally and to hold a subpoena hanging over his head in making matters worse.

In announcing postponement of the hearing, Velde said: "I feel that I was within my rights in issuing the subpoena for them (Mr. Truman and Byrnes) and will continue pressing for their hearings."

It is estimated that more than 40 billion gallons of gasoline were consumed in the United States in 1952.

Bondsman Fined in Fatal Shooting

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — O. W. (Jack) Smith was convicted of a reduced charge of involuntary manslaughter here yesterday and his fine fixed at $1,000 in the fatal shooting of his 21-year-old secretary.

The Pulaski Circuit Court jury of seven White and three Negro men and two women which deliberated two hours, did not recommend a jail sentence.

Smith had been charged with second degree murder in the death of Mrs. Dolores McLaughlin Edwards of Malvern who was shot to death in his office last January.

The Little Rock bondsman told the court that he was firing at another employee, Irving Newcomb, when Mrs. Edwards was hit. He said Newcomb had threatened him. The employee was wounded four times.

of your nerve centers and electricity flexes your muscles for you," said Miss Simonet, "at the rate of 20 contractions a minute of 1,200, an hour. It does all the work for you. All you have to do is plug it in and turn the dials. It can tone up any muscle in your body while you relax."

"How about that old serratus anterior muscle?" I ask cynically.

"She adjusted a pad on the blonde girl's left rib section, and tuned it in. Immediately Charlotte's splendid serratus anterior began a rhythmic twitch."

"How does it feel?"

"Tingly . . . just tingly," replied Charlotte reservedly.

"Now, we'll test it on the muscle we sit on — the gluteus maximus," said Miss Simonet. She put a pad under each of Charlotte's hips, and a moment later the blonde was giving a completely relaxed imitation of Gypsy Rose Lee at her best.

"Wonderfully thing — electricity!" I murmured. "How does that feel?"

"Tingly . . . just tingly," said Charlotte coolly. "There is no feeling of shock at all."

Charlotte's pectoralis major responded as gamely as her vastus externus. I had a feeling of regret when Miss Simonet switched the machine off without giving Charlotte's adductor magnus and sartorius a workout. I hate to see any good muscle slighted.

Miss Simonet asked, "Now, would you like to try the machine?"

"Bashfully, I agreed to rest the Social Security Boss Named

only muscles I had on display, the moment — those in my triple threat club. She held a bad under my chin like a butterfly, and immediately the muscles began automatically twitching. I had a wild sense of power — as if I could chew the biggest hunk of bubble gum in the world.

"How does it feel?" asked Charlotte.

"Tingly . . . just tingly," I told her.

A spokesman for the firm — a big fellow with powerful muscles — said sports figures and entertainment notables used the Relax-A-Cisor to keep in shape painlessly.

But they had to turn down one customer who wanted a machine for the head.

"I got a fat-headed girl friend," he explained, "and this dame really needs help to exercise it."

mands at the same time, he said, there would be "direct and indirect price supports, wherever practical" to cushion price declines.

But for the long range program, Benson said "marketing" was the "best answer."

By OVIS A. MARTIN

WASHINGTON (AP) Secretary of Agriculture Benson heads into drought-distressed areas of the Southwest today on an inspection tour that may show him how farmers there feel about administration farm policies.

A five-day tour by military airplane will take him into parts of Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Wyoming and Missouri.

Accompanied by Agriculture Department aides and a corps of newsmen, Benson planned to make his first overnight stop at Lubbock, Texas, after delivering a noonline speech before a meeting of the National Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities at Columbus, Ohio.

The announced purpose of the trip is to "observe progress of the Agriculture Department's drought program in states having officially designated drought areas, and to check drought conditions in nearby states."

The tour is being made at a time when Benson and his policies are under sharp attack by some farm leaders and congressmen, including a few Republicans. It also is being made on the heels of extensive travels by the House Agriculture Committee through farming areas seeking farmer views on future farm programs.

Bell Likes Hope, SMU, Baylor, Rice, Texas

By CARL BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

Your football forecaster goes to work today with renewed confidence. He knows his scientific system of picking winners is better than flipping a coin.

If you'll recall, last week for fun and for purposes of comparison — this seer tossed a quarter on every game.

"I'm mighty happy that I stipulated that results of the coin flipping wouldn't be figured into my season's prediction record. The coin called only 47 per cent of 64 games correctly. The batting mark for Bell's scientific system is 70 per cent.

So back to science: SMU over Arkansas — The Razorbacks have the Southwest Conference's greatest ground gainer in Lamar McLean, but the Mustangs have the league's finest defense. SMU will have big advantages in numbers, weight and playing at home. Arkansas, you know, hasn't won in Texas since 1940.

Rice over Texas A&M — This is no contest, although it's difficult to picture the Owls as high again as they were against the Parkers.

Texas over TCU — The Longhorns, who spent the early part of the season developing their three platoons, are rolling now.

Baylor over Houston — Bouncing back from their only defeat of the season, the Bears may be most brutal.

Southeast Missouri over Arkansas A&M — The Boll Weevils not only are weakened by the loss of three injured regulars but also are due for a letdown following their errorless stamping of The College of the Ozarks.

Arkansas State over Tennessee Tech — No one has managed to beat rampaging Richie Wolt and his Indian mates yet. Ozarks over State Teachers — True the thinly-manned Mountaineers are crippled, but they've had time now to adjust personnel changes and should be fighting mad this week.

Henderson over Hendrix — The disappointing Reddies ought to take this one on manpower alone.

Little Rock JC over Memphis Navy — The sailors have some big, bruising boys but all the Arkansas college teams are having good luck against them.

Mississippi College over Ouachita — A lack of depth is catching up with the Tigers.

Delta State over Southern State Elmer Smith's Muldericks look great on paper and someday they may break loose on the field. But they can't rate the nod until they

Nashville Scores Twice to Beat Hope

The Hope Bobkittens were defeated 14 to 0 by the Nashville final game of the season for the Bobkittens who finished with four wins, four losses, and a tie.

Neither team could score in the first half of the game. But Nashville threatened as they drive to the Bobkittens' 5 yard line only to have the clock run out.

Nashville scored in the third period when McCully plunged two yards for the score. McCall added the extra points. Tillie Scrappers other score came when McCully went around end for 16 yards. He also added the extra points.

The Bobkittens threatened once when they drove to Nashville's 10 yard line only to lose the ball on a fumble.

Tonight at Hannum Stadium, The Hope B's will play the Camden B's with game time at 7:30.

Spa Racing Season Feb. 20, March 27

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — The 1954 Arkansas horse race meeting will be held here Feb. 20 through March 27.

The dates were set yesterday by the Arkansas Racing Commission, which also adopted a new rule designed to improve the class of horses racing at the track.

The ruling provides that no stalls will be allotted to a horse that raced in 1953 for a claiming price of less than $1,500 unless the horse finished first or second in a higher priced claiming race last year.

show more life. Now, for the high school picture: Texarkana over El Dorado. North Little Rock over Fort Smith. Blytheville over Hot Springs. Little Rock over Pine Bluff.

Rogers over Tahlequah, Okla., Joplin, Mo., over Van Buren. Forrest City over Paragould. Jonesboro over Helena. Stuttgart over Newport. Conway over Benton. Malvern over Smackover. Russellville over Morrilton. Hope over Arkadelphia. Camden over Magnolia. Fordyce over Monticello. Tulsa East Central over Huntsville.

Pocahontas over Batesville. McCrary over Wynne. Marked Tree over Earle. Piggott over Malden, MO. West Memphis over Trumann. Keiser over Burdette. Osceola over Lepanto. Booneville over Danville. Mansfield over Paris. Mena over Waldron. Atkins over Dardanelle.

Deaf School over Bismarck. Delta over Brinkley. Clarendon over Parkin. Fairview over Ashdown. DeQueen over Prescott. Nashville over Gardon. Bearden over White Hall. Hamburg over Norphlet. Dumas over Dermott. Eudora over Searcy.

It raises your pride and races your pulse

You feel it the moment we turn over the keys to you.
You now own the handsomest "hardtop" around—a Buick Riviera—and the warm glow goes all through you.
But not alone for the racy beauty of the car.
You feel that prideful surge, too, from the fact that here you bought yourself a whale of a lot of automobile—a whale of a lot of room and power and soft luxury and ride steadiness—for a lot less than you expected.
For the automobile pictured here is a Buick SPECIAL Riviera—which means it delivers locally for just a few dollars more than the "hardtop" models of the "low-price three."

But it's only when you drive away in your rich and bounteous new beauty that the real thrills begin and the satisfaction deepens...
When the highest Fireball 8 power in Buick SPECIAL history whispers away the miles with effortless ease...
When Twin-Turbine Dynaflo® gives you instant getaway response with silken smoothness, and the Million-Dollar Ride levels every inch of your way...
When the deep wide seats cradle you in spacious comfort and the great glass areas give you visibility practically unlimited.
Surely you ought to look into this great Buick that's so prideful to own, so thrilling to drive, so easy to buy.

We'll be happy to arrange a sampling. Can you visit us this week?
